 At this time the Mayor called on Willie Davison, Planning Director, to present Case #1935 for the Final Plat approval for Section C of Holly Ridge Subdivision. Mr. Davidson stated Holly Ridge section A was granted approval in 2005, section B in 2006 and section C was approved in 2015 by planning commission but never brought to the Board of Aldermen at that time. Mr. Davidson stated the planning commission again approved the preliminary Plat for Section C on November 25, 2019. Mr. Davidson stated this would be 32 lots measuring at a range of 20,000 to 71,000 square feet with the same covenants as section B with minimum 1,600 heated square feet homes. Mr. Davidson stated if final plat approval is granted, the plat would be recorded and final construction drawings would be presented for review. Mr. Davidson stated they have applied for tree removal and storm water permits. Alderman Guice asked where the construction entrance would be. Mr. Davidson stated this would be coordinated in the construction phase. Alderman Jones asked if a construction bond is in place. Mr. Davidson stated a bond would be in place. Mr. Jones (engineer for the developer) stated they would have a bond in place. Alderman Guice asked if they would be coming off DeSoto Road with construction. Mr. Jones stated yes. Alderman Roberts asked if they would consider obtaining a construction entrance off other land to the north of the Subdivision. Alderman White asked about the detention pond and how that would be maintained by a HOA. Mr. Jones stated they would have a HOA. Alderman Jones stated it would need to be paid for by the HOA. Mr. Jones stated he would have the City Attorney review the HOA bylaws for the detention pond.
