RENTAL PROPERTY LICENSE APPLICATION

To ensure compliance with the Rental Property Licensing Act, the owner of any building containing rental units must obtain a Rental Property License for each building containing rental units. A separate application must be submitted for each request for a Rental Property License, as each building shall have its own Rental Property License associated with it. Before any Rental Property License can be issued to any owner, that owner must be on file as having a valid Business License to own one or more buildings containing rental units.
